SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background: This is the seventh public hearing the Commission will hold during its 2021 report cycle. The hearing will start with an assessment of changes in Hong Kong's legal system, media, and special designation under U.S. trade practices. Next, the hearing will explore the Chinese government's increased regulation of markets and data, including new measures affecting foreign-listed Chinese companies and implications for U.S. investors. The last panel will address the current status of U.S. foreign investment review and export control reforms.

The hearing will be co-chaired by Vice Chairman Robin Cleveland and Commissioner Kimberly Glas. Any interested party may file a written statement by September 8, 2021 by transmitting to the contact above. A portion of the hearing will include a question and answer period between the Commissioners and the witnesses.

Authority: Congress created the U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission in 2000 in the National Defense Authorization Act (Public Law 106-398), as amended by Division P of the Consolidated Appropriations Resolution, 2003 (Public Law 108-7), as amended by Public Law 109-108 (November 22, 2005), as amended by Public Law 113-291 (December 19, 2014).
